

Jigsaw Jez's Journey

Being Me In My World

denied asylum vision
How does my world compare to other children's worlds?

opportunities

I will learn about...

- How to use my Jigsaw Journal
- How to face challenges positively
- What it means to have rights and responsibilities
- How everyone has the right to learn
- The affect that choices can have upon rewards and consequences
- How to work well with others
- The positive benefits to democracy and having a voice

appreciation

I will explore...

- What is important to me and what I value
- What it means to show empathy towards others
- How I can work cooperatively with my peers
- How to show care towards other people's feelings
- My choices in following the Learning Charter conflict

wealthy prejudice motivation migrants persecution deprive empathise refugee privilege

Jigsaw Jez's Journey

Can you give an example of how people in your country have different lives from one another?

Why do rules, responsibilities and rights help people in the wider community?

My Thinking Pad

What have I learnt in this puzzle that helps me in our world?

Being part of a community is positive because...

We have rules, rights and responsibilities because...

The actions of another person can affect others by...

How can rules, responsibilities and rights make groups more effective?

Being Me In My World

